COLE* Technology Corporation Honored as a Patriotic Employer

Fort Worth, TX – June 3, 2009 - COLE Technology Corporation has received the 'Patriot Award' for their dedication to maintaining the strength and readiness of America's National Guard and Reserve Units.

The National Committee for Employer Support of the Guard and Reserve (ESGR) is a Department of Defense agency that promotes the value and importance of American employers' support of the military service of their employees. ESGR provides support, information, recognition, and mediation to and for employers and employees concerning military service. Of their many goals, ESGR seeks to inform the American workforce about the Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployments Rights Act (USERRA). For more information, go to www.esgr.mil.
